Trial starts tomorrow. I'm pretty sure we're going 9 to 1, so I'd probably need you Mon. a.m. But if that's not possible, let me know and maybe I can get you in Fri. afternoon, or midmorning on Monday. Would either of those work?

By the way – what is the term for the first chemist on the cert? The second is the confirmatory chemist who confirms the analysis and weight that the first person did, is that correct?

(I've cc'd Nancy, as she is v. familiar w/ this saga...)
